

Preserving future draws keeps a winning Prize route alive

Exploratory example selected after the low-H analysis · 103027623:259 · H = 12

Public root: our deck 7 · opposing deck 5 · four Prize cards still needed

Active Crustle blocks attack damage from the opposing Grimmsnarl ex.

a7 Play Dwebble	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
a9 Superb Scissors	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
a1 Explorer's Guidance	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16
	Sampled world

Representative world: Dwebble first and attacking now both finish the Prize route.

Root choice	Own turn 18	Own turn 19	Own turn 20
Dwebble first (rule)	Deck 7 · Prizes 4	Deck 6 · Prizes 2	Deck 5 · Prizes 0 Win after third attack
Guidance first	Deck 1 · Prizes 4	Deck 0 · Prizes 2	Mandatory draw fails Loss with 2 Prizes left Explorer's Guidance consumes six deck cards: 7 → 1. The second future draw then fails.

Three of 12 root actions shown. Cells: mean terminal score (1 = win, 0 = loss), 32 repeats per action/world.
Fixed continuation policies. These selected traces do not prove optimal play.